Continuation of Disposition of Claims: Claims pending in the application are 2,4-13,15-17,22,24,25,29,31-40,42-44,49,51,52,56,58-67,69-71,76,78 and 79.

DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to remarks and amendments file on March 15, 2010. The amendment filed have been entered and made of record. Claims 2, 4-13, 15-17, 22, 24-25, 29, 31-40, 42-44, 49, 51, 52, 56, 58-67, 69-71, 76, 78, and 79 are pending for consideration.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's remarks with respect to claims 2, 4-13, 15-17, 22, 24-25, 29, 31-40, 42-44, 49, 51, 52, 56, 58-67, 69-71, 76, 78, and 79 filed on March 15, 2010 have been considered. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made as discussed below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 56, 58-67, 69-71, 76, 78, and 79 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Art Unit: 2431

3. Claims 56, 58-67, 69-71, 76, 78, and 79 are rejected under 35 USC 101 since the claims are directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 56, 58-67, 69-71, 76, 78, and 79 are directed towards a service implemented in a computer-accessible and readable medium which appears to cover both transitory and non-transitory embodiments. The specification merely recites the term “computer-accessible and readable, useable medium”, but no specific definition is provided to define this claimed term. The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) is required to give claims their broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the specification during proceedings before the USPTO. See In re Zletz, 893 F.2d 319 (Fed. Cir. 1989) (during patent examination the pending claims must be interpreted as broadly as their terms reasonably allow). The broadest reasonable interpretation of a claim drawn to a computer readable medium (also called machine readable medium and other such variations) typically covers forms of non-transitory tangible media and transitory propagating signals per se in view of the ordinary and customary meaning of computer readable media, particularly when the specification is silent. See MPEP 2111.01. When the broadest reasonable interpretation of a claim covers a signal per se, the claim must be rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 101 as covering non-statutory subject matter. See In re Nuijten, 500 F.3d 1346, 1356-57 (Fed. Cir. 2007) (transitory embodiments are not directed to statutory subject matter) and Interim Examination Instructions for Evaluating Subject Matter Eligibility Under 35 U.S.C. § 101, Aug. 24, 2009; p. 2.

4. The Examiner suggests that the Applicant add the limitation “non-transitory machine-accessible and readable medium” to the claim(s) in order to properly render the claims in statutory form in view of their broadest reasonable interpretation in light of the originally filed specification. The examiner also suggests that the specification be amended to include the term

“non-transitory machine-accessible and readable medium” to avoid a potential objection to the specification for a lack of antecedent basis of the claimed terminology.”
